

Trail of Souls
Day of Repentance and Reconciliation
Remembering the Past, Celebrating Change, Visioning the Future
November 1, 2014
Itinerary

The day begins at the Diocesan Center, Baltimore.

- 8 a.m. Clover Hill Plantation
Welcome & Blessing of the Pilgrims
- 8:05 Historical Presentation
- 8:15 Station One Liturgy
- 8:30 Board buses* or your own car and depart for All Hallows' Parish, Davidsonville
Talk about significance of All Hallows' Parish
- 9:15 Arrive at All Hallows' Parish
- 9:25 Historical Presentation by All Hallows'
The parish's significance to the history of the abolition of slavery
- 9:40 Station Two Liturgy
- 10:00 Depart for All Saints' Parish, Sunderland
Talk about significance of All Saints' Parish
- 10:25 Arrive at All Saints' Parish
- 10:35 Historical Presentation by All Saints'
The parish's significance to the history of the abolition of slavery
- 10:50 Station Three Liturgy
- 11:10 Depart for Grace Church, Silver Spring
Talk about significance of Grace Church, the Maryland constitutional change, etc.
- 12 p.m. Arrive at Grace Church, Diocese of Washington
- 12:10 Historical Presentation by Grace Church and Bishop Marianne Budde
The parish's significance to the history of the abolition of slavery
- 12:35 Station Four Liturgy with Bp. Budde
- 12:55 Depart for Bishop Claggett Center, Buckeystown
Boxed lunch on the bus
Talk about significance of the Hasselbach Family Cemetery
- 1:35 Arrive at the Claggett Center
- 1:40 Walk to Hasselbach Cemetery, Buckingham Plantation OR Join in the Prayer Vigil and visit
St. Mark's Church, Lappans, display in Monocacy Hall
- 1:50 Historical Presentation at the cemetery by the Rev. Bill Fallowfield
The significance of the history to the abolition of slavery
- 2:05 Station Five Liturgy
- 2:20 Baltimore City Pipe Band – Amazing Grace, Going Home
Walk to Monocacy Hall
- 2:40 Festive Worship in Monocacy Hall
- 3:30 Buses depart for Diocesan Center, Baltimore
- 5:00 Arrive at Diocesan Center

*Registration is required for bus travel and lunch.